ARMORED COMBAT

Marshall-in-Charge: Sir Straum von Bairzog

Before and after Morning Court - Inspections and authorizations

1:00 pm - The Queen's Tournament - As our Queen of Love and Beauty and the embodiment of Chivalric Virtues, Her Royal Majesty, AnneMarie, by Royal invitation, will honor the exemplary Lords and Ladies for their prowess and panoply on the field in a special tournament as examples to the Kingdom at large of Chivalric Virtues.

Following the tournament there will be Ladies of the Rose and other gentle women observing the combats and selecting individuals who, within their view, have demonstrated various Chivalric Virtues. These gentles, along with the Tournament Victors, will be recognized in Evening Court.

"William Marshall" Tournament - All those in arms are welcome and encouraged to participate. Combatants will be given point values based on martial ranking, and victors shall be awarded scores based on the difference in rank of their opponents. This tournament will last at least one hour. Further details will be disclosed upon the day.

After the conclusion of both tournaments, the field will be opened for pick-up and instructional combats until closing before Evening Court.

Both Tournaments will be held on a wide, grassy sward adjacent to the building. If weather is inclement, we will use the large gymnasium.

FENCING

Marshall-in-Charge: Lord Galen O'Conail

9:00 am-10:00 am - Inspection and authorization

10:00 am-noon - Closed for Morning Court

Noon-3:00 pm - Tourneys:

- Know Your Role Tournament: Three distinct categories: nobleman, guard, and assassin. Each with their own motivation. Prizes to be awarded to best of each category. Six fencers minimum to run this.
- Resurrection Triple Elimination: Start with two arms, then only one, then only a single dagger.
- Swiss Five Bear Pit

3:00 pm - Regional Contest for Kingdom Rapier Championship

All tourneys are dependent on time and number of fencers.

YOUTH COMBAT

Marshall-in-Charge: Lord Nyilas Kazmer

Noon - Open list for inspections, authorizations, and warmups.

1:00 pm - Tournament followed by sparring and melee as appropriate.

Note: Some limited loaner gear is available.

ARCHERY

Marshall-in-Charge: Lady Godaeth se Wisfaest

September 1356: Edward the Black Prince, embodiment of the chivalric ideal, has led an expedition into France in the wake of a broken truce. His force is confronted at Poitiers:

"Then ensued a terrible contest of men armed with lances, swords, and axes; nor did the archers fail in their duty ... the crossbowmen also shooting rapidly and heavily ..."

Imagine you are rushed together in the onslaught of battle. There are four of you to a group: three long-bows and one crossbow or Forester. You may not know your colleagues, or perhaps the archer next to you is your bitterest rival from a neighboring barony. But now you must work together to win through!

Celebrate The Coronation of Their Royal Majesties Dag and AnneMarie with morning and afternoon archery activities in a historic context.

8:15-9:45 am - Inspections & beginner-friendly "Wake-Up-The-Sun" social shoot (lots of fresh air and fellowship)

[9:45-Noon - Range closed for Morning Court and Coronation. Range will re-open at "lunchtime" for open practice]

1:00 pm - Introduction to Crossbows: Class Presented by Pentamere Regional Archery Marshal Forester Ligessac d'Isigny

2:00 pm - POITIERS TOURNAMENT: Relay competition of four-person teams. Number of contestants will determine number of teams - names will be drawn by Her Majesty AnneMarie, Queen of Love and Beauty. (Prizes To Be Announced.)

3:15 pm - FORESTERS' ARCHER'S DUELS : For the Pleasure of Their Majesties and Their Populace, a contest exclusive to Companions of the Greenwood Company

4:15 pm - Range closes for the Day: Evening Court

A&S COMPETITION

The Honorable Lady Arin fraan Traentorp

To showcase the wonders of the Kingdom, the populace is invited to partake in the Coronation A&S bean count display. The Winner will be the entry with most beans and will be announced in court. Sign up will open at 12:00 pm and the display closes at 4:00 pm. Please remember to sign in, and to pick up your items afterward.

To participate: Sign in your item with the attendant. Do this as early as possible (tables open at noon), so that everyone will have a chance to see it. And don't forget to pick it up at 4:00 pm!

To vote: Take 3 beans from the box and select the item/the items, you like the most, by placing bean(s) in the cup provided by each item.

The Winner will be the entry with most beans and will be announced in court! Items without cups are for display only.
